

IS YOUR HOME FIT TO SELL?

Depersonalizing

Depersonalizing is an important step when it comes to selling your home. It means that you need to let go emotionally and this can be a tough process. Now that you have made the decision to move, you need to commit and remove your identity from the house. Focus on turning your home into a "model home." Disconnecting yourself from your house will allow buyers to emotionally connect and envision themselves living there, not feeling that they are guests in your home.
